

THE AMERICAN COMMITMENT TO PAKISTAN

America has committed over

$32.5 billion

in civilian and military support since 2002.

More than 14.2 million Pakistanis follow the Embassy and Consulates' Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram accounts to learn about U.S. government policy and programs, which partner with Pakistan to make it a more secure, stable, and prosperous democracy.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

32,000+

Pakistani alumni

of American government-funded student and professional exchange programs, the largest network of its kind in the world.

Each year, approximately 800

Pakistanis,

from high school students to mid-career professionals, go to America on U.S. government-funded exchange programs.

Trained over 91,800 teachers since 2013.

America has built or repaired over 1,600 schools since 2011.

PARTNERING WITH PAKISTAN

American-funded energy infrastructure projects have added over

3,900 megawatts

to the national grid, which benefited more than

47 million

 Pakistanis.

nearly

11 million

In coordination with Pakistani partners, the U.S. government supported efforts to deliver health services for nearly 11 million women and children and trained more than 52,000 people on primary health service since 2013.

The United States has helped more than

1 million

 farmers

and small business owners improve their livelihoods with enhanced technology and better management practices.

The United States has trained over 90,000

Pakistani police officers, including 2,800 women officers, and built over 400 police facilities including police headquarters training centers and outposts.

PARTNERING WITH PAKISTAN

U.S. support helped expand access to clean drinking water and sanitation services for more than 300,000 people across Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and Sindh provinces.

The United States helped construct more than 1800km of roads and bridges in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and Balochistan provinces, and in the newly merged districts.

The United States facilitated the civil registration of more than 1 million women to provide them equal access to public services and civil and political rights.

SUPPORTING PAKISTAN'S ECONOMY

82,000+ new jobs

have been directly created through American training since 2011.

In 2020, the United States and Pakistan's trade was $6.8 billion. The United States has long been Pakistan's number one export destination.

The American Business Council's 60+ member companies employ over 130,000 Pakistanis, helping sustain over one million jobs in Pakistan and generating nearly $4 billion in economic activity each year.

HELPING THOSE MOST IN NEED

The United States has trained 293 drug treatment professionals and supported 10 drug treatment centers.

The United States delivered life-saving services for more than 340,000 women and children in the Afghanistan-Pakistan border region.

America provided 200 ventilators to Pakistan to support COVID-19 recovery.

