

THE AMERICAN COMMITMENT TO PAKISTAN

America has committed over $32.5 billion in civilian and military support since 2002.

More than 14.3 million Pakistanis follow the Embassy and Consulates' Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram accounts to learn about U.S. government policy and programs, which partner with Pakistan to make it a more secure, stable, and prosperous democracy.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

37,000+ Pakistani alumni

U.S. government-funded student and professional exchange programs, the largest network of its kind in the world.

Trained over 91,800 teachers since 2013.

Each year, approximately 800 Pakistanis from high school students to mid-career professionals, go to America on U.S. government-funded exchange program.

America has built or repaired over 1,700 SCHOOLS since 2011.

PARTNERING WITH PAKISTAN

USAID funded energy infrastructure projects have added over 3,600 megawatts to the national grid, which benefited more than 47 million Pakistanis.

In coordination with Pakistani partners, the U.S. government supported efforts to deliver health services for nearly 13 million women and children and trained more than 60,000 people on primary health service since 2013.

The United States has helped more than 1 million farmers and small business owners improve their livelihoods with enhanced technology and innovative management practices.

The United States has supported the training of over 123,000 Pakistani police officers, including over 5,500 women and built over 440 police facilities including police headquarters, training centers and outposts.

PARTNERING WITH PAKISTAN

USAID support helped expand access to clean drinking water and sanitation services to almost

3 million people across Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and Sindh.

International Narcotics & Law Enforcement (INL) helped construct more than 1280 km of roads and bridges in Balochistan and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa provinces, including in the newly merged district.

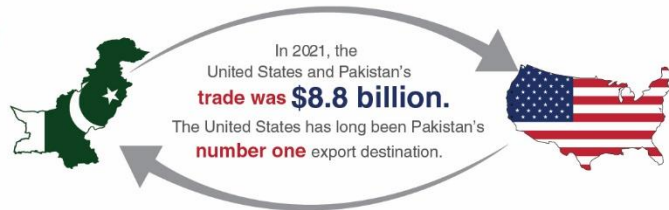

The United States facilitated the civil registration of more than 1.5 million women to provide them equal access to public services and civil and political rights.

SUPPORTING PAKISTAN'S ECONOMY

82,000+ new jobs have been directly created through American training since 2011.

U.S. companies and their local affiliates are among Pakistan's largest employers, with roughly 80 U.S. companies directly employing more than 120,000 Pakistanis. Indirectly, the U.S. also supports more than one million Pakistani jobs.

HELPING THOSE MOST IN NEED

To date, the United States has donated 61.5 million safe and effective COVID-19 vaccine doses to Pakistan.

The United States delivered life-saving services for more than 340,000 women and children in the Afghanistan-Pakistan border region.

The United States has trained 293 drug treatment professionals and supported 10 drug treatment centers.

America provided 200 ventilators to Pakistan to support COVID-19 recovery.

